

The Islamification of Texas – A Clash of Civilizations

For the last 200 years, immigrants came to the United States because they wanted to become Americans. We became known as the world's melting pot. The vast majority of immigrants came from the western civilization that featured Judeo-Christian values. Western values such as freedom of speech, freedom of religion and individual rights and responsibilities formed the foundational core of our constitution.

I truly love our American culture, especially the way we have added our own touches of downhome friendliness. We still move over to let people onto the road, we say hello to strangers and we are always willing to lend a helping hand. And I also love the wonderful way that the blended cultures contribute art, music, architecture and food blend to create a wonderfully diverse yet cohesive society. We remain cohesive because, at our core, we share those foundational western values.

Many people think Islam is simply a religion and therefore it falls under our traditional notion of freedom of religion. That simply is not correct. While there is a religious component to Islam, religion is just a small part of Islamic doctrine. Islam is an entirely different civilization. Islam's values are nothing like western values. Freedom of religion – forget it. In some Islamic countries apostasy (leaving Islam) is punishable by death. There are moral police roaming the streets meting out instant punishment to women who are not appropriately covered. Women are considered property and have virtually no rights. Sharia law is brutal in its treatment of anyone who is not a muslim male.

Countries such as Egypt and Lebanon were once thriving modern cities with a mix of religions and cultures. As strict Islamic organizations such as the Muslim Brotherhood have taken over once modern progressive countries are being driven back to the dark ages. Here's a video that discusses what has happened in the Arab world:

If you haven't been following what has happened in Europe, Scandinavia and the UK, you really need to. Their cultures are being decimated by an army of immigrant Islamic activists whose mission is to replace the native cultures with Islam. And, they are close to being completely successful.

There is increasing belief that Europe and the UK are very close to exploding into civil war: Please watch this video to get a glimpse of what we are probably facing here if we don't change directions. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hf0VKszbn7Q>

Texas has become the focal point for Islamic expansion into the United States. We have entire communities in the Dallas/Ft Worth area that are now completely Islamic. Housing developments have been built with nothing but Islamic street names, non-muslims are effectively excluded from living there, mosques and religious schools are being integrated into the neighborhood and you see young girls covered in traditional hijabs, We have seen instances of honor killings, and attempts to impose Sharia law. Here's a video of bullying tactics that are being employed to impose Islamic culture and values in Texas:

Friends, this is a huge problem and most Texans are blissfully ignorant. We are fortunate in that we are a few years behind Europe and the UK so we have their example to learn from. I fear massive violence in those areas is inevitable. We must find a way to stop this takeover while we still can.

This is NOT an indictment of all muslims nor of their religion. But, this is a clear and urgent call to action to turnback those who are living among us and who are dedicated to bringing down our western values and in their place imposing on America Islamic principles such as Sharia law, the subjugation of women and girls, intolerance including capital punishment for homosexuals, and death to those guilty of adultery (but only for women).

Let me clearly state – this is NOT about a religion. This is about a culture that as one of its fundamental beliefs advocates for the assimilation of the entire world either by persuasion or by force. We are experiencing a clash between totally incompatible cultures and ideologies. We can either address that clash now or we can ignore it and address it when mass violence breaks out. If you believe that statement is hyperbole, I invite you again to watch this video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hf0VKszbn7Q>
